

National Credit Act

10 years later - Seminar

Join Frans Haupt, an NCA expert, and update your National Credit Act knowledge

About the programme

The seminar this year marks the 10th anniversary of the coming into operation of the National Credit Act (NCA). The seminar will cover an overview of the most important sections of the NCA. It will also highlight important court decisions over the past ten years, followed by a more detailed discussion of amendments to the NCA as well as court and tribunal decisions over the past two years.

Who should attend?

Suitable for all practitioners - attorneys, candidate attorneys, support staff, legal advisors, debt counsellors and credit providers - in short everybody involved in matters to which the NCA applies.

Registration fees (VAT incl.)

The registration fees are subsidised for practising attorneys and candidate attorneys. Course material and refreshments are included in the fee.

- Practising attorneys: R1 450.00 pp
- Candidate attorneys and support staff: R1 320.00 pp
- Practising attorneys from firms further than 150km from closest venue: R1 050.00 pp

Featured speaker

Frans Haupt

Frans was admitted as an attorney in 1981 and has been the director of the University of Pretoria Law Clinic since 2000. In 2013 he co-drafted the review of Government's consumer credit policy which underlies some of the subsequent amendments to the National Credit Act and regulations.

Frans has acted as a consultant for the Department of Trade and Industry, the National Credit Regulator, credit providers, debt counsellors and consumer organisations since the inception of the NCA. Frans has authored and co-authored a number of reports, papers and articles both locally and internationally and has been presenting the annual update on the NCA for the LSSA for the past seven years. He is widely regarded as an expert on the NCA.
