Providing attorneys with the tools to manage their law firms efficiently on a sustained basis.

Is practice management training mandatory for attorneys?
Yes, for those attorneys issued with their first Attorneys Fidelity Fund certificates after 14 August 2009. This is in terms of Sections 8 to 10 of the Judicial Matters Second Amendment Act 55 of 2003.

How do attorneys comply?
The PMT course is offered by the Law Society of South Africa’s education division, Legal Education and Development, and other accredited providers.

By when do attorneys have to comply?
In terms of the Judicial Matters Second Amendment Act 55 of 2003, the training must be completed to the satisfaction of the attorney’s relevant statutory law society before 31 December of the year following the year in which the first Attorneys Fidelity Fund certificate was issued. This deadline is the latest by when the training must be done and can be done earlier should the attorney prefer.

In certain circumstances, an attorney can apply to his/her provincial statutory law society for an extension or exemption, on the basis of prior experience and qualifications. Please refer overleaf for more information on applying for an extension or exemption.
Format of the training
Practice Management Training is offered either during the week after hours (10 sessions) or on Saturdays (4 sessions). LEAD has training centres around the country. The same outcomes, content and assessment apply to both. The training is based on modules and requires the participant to submit three assignments. The LSSA awards the final certificate only once the participant has successfully completed and complied with the requirements of the course.

Course content

Duration of course
Weekday attendance (after hours weekly from 17:30 - 20:30) – 10 sessions
The duration of the attendance training is six months and training is provided two or three times a week in three-hourly sessions.

Training takes place at the following centres: Pretoria, Johannesburg, Cape Town and Durban.

Saturday attendance – 4 sessions
The duration of the Saturday training is also six months and workshops are held on four Saturdays from 09:00-16:00.

Training takes place at the following centres: Cape Town, Durban, Pietermaritzburg, East London, Johannesburg, Port Elizabeth, Polokwane, Pretoria, Bloemfontein, Mthatha and Kimberly.

LEAD reserves the right to convert a weekday course to a Saturday course or cancel a learning activity in a particular centre should the number of delegates not justify the costs involved.

Tuition fee
Full course: R3 100 (VAT inclusive)
Per individual module: R500 each (VAT inclusive) if exempted from other modules.

Registration will be confirmed only if proof of payment for the full amount has been received by LEAD. No payment plans are permitted for the PMT course.

Registration dates
There are two intakes per year.
First intake: Closing date for registration is 09 December 2016. The course will start in February.
Second intake: Closing date for registration is 02 June 2017. The course will start in July.
All registered participants will be sent further particulars prior to the commencement of the course.

If you do not receive confirmation of registration from LEAD within ten working days after the registration closing date, please immediately follow-up with PMT Coordinators on PMT@LSSALEAD.org.za.

Legal Practice Bill
Transitional provisions relating to qualifications in the Legal Practice Bill, 2012, state that the training course presented at a Practical Legal Training School of the Law Society of South Africa; or any other training course approved by any existing law society. The same outcomes, content and assessment apply to both. The training is based on modules and requires the participant to submit three assignments. The LSSA awards the final certificate only once the participant has successfully completed and complied with the requirements of the course.

Requirements when registering for PMT
Upon registration, students are to ensure they have an active individual email address as well as internet access. They will need to access e-LEADer (LEAD’s e-learning platform) where important notices, submission and marking of assignments and relevant information about the training will be posted. No sharing of email addresses is allowed, students must have individual email accounts.

Exemption and extension process
Students can apply to be exempted from the full training or certain modules. The exemption and extension process is dealt with by a formal application to the Records Division of the student’s statutory law society. The contact details are found below.

Cape Law Society – Tel: (021) 443 6700
Law Society of the Northern Provinces – Tel: (012) 338 5800
Law Society of the Free State – Tel: (051) 447 3237
Law Society of KwaZulu-Natal – Tel: (033) 345 1304

Cancellation of registration
Cancellation is to be made in writing and submitted to the LEAD Practice Management Training department at least 30 days prior to the commencement of the course (Please note that there will be a 10% admin fee charged). Failure to notify the department timeously will result in the student forfeiting all the fees paid. This provision, however, does not apply if formal exemption has been granted by the student’s statutory law society. In such a case, a refund will be paid upon receipt of written confirmation of the exemption from the law society. The refund will be calculated as follows:

- If full exemption has been granted prior to issuing of material and commencing of classes – a full refund will be processed.
- If partial or full exemption is granted after material is issued to the student and classes have commenced, the material not required should be returned to LEAD within 2 weeks. If the material has been damaged or needs to be repackaged, LEAD will charge the student a “reasonable amount” to cover the cost of restoring the material to its original condition.

Assignment deadlines & requirements
1. Students must submit assignments to the LEAD Practice Management Training department or before the set closing date, via the e-LEADer platform. No e-mailed/faxed assignments will be accepted.
2. A student who fails to submit an assignment by the set date, can only submit his/her assignment the following intake’s set assignment submission date.
3. Assignments submitted without the signed declaration forms will not be accepted.

Successful completion of the PMT Course
To complete the course, students are required to have a satisfactory attendance record of the training (8 modules) as well as having passed the three assignments and tests and quizzes. Ideally, the student should complete the training at the end of the first six months after registering. Students are, however, required to complete the Practice Management Training in full within 18 months from the date of registering.

If the training has not been completed within 18 months from the date of first registration, the student will have to re-register and repeat the entire training (8 modules and 3 assignments). The full cost of the training will have to be paid again.

Code of conduct
Students should note that any misconduct will be reported to the student’s statutory law society which will in turn proceed with an investigation into the misconduct and disciplinary action will be taken where appropriate. An instructor has the authority to cancel a student’s attendance in his/her class.

Examples of misconduct are:
- Fraudulent completion of the attendance register;
- Plagiarism of any assignment;
- Acts of dishonesty and unprofessional conduct.
