Lifelong learning towards a just society

Practice Management Training (PMT) – 2017

Providing attorneys with the tools to manage their law firms efficiently on a sustained basis.

Is practice management training mandatory for attorneys?

Yes, for those attorneys issued with their first Attorneys Fidelity Fund certificates after 14 August 2009. This is in terms of Sections 8 to 10 of the Judicial Matters Second Amendment Act 55 of 2003.

How do attorneys comply?

The PMT course is offered by the Law Society of South Africa's education division, Legal Education and Development, and other accredited providers.

By when do attorneys have to comply?

In terms of the Judicial Matters Second Amendment Act 55 of 2003, the training must be completed to the satisfaction of the attorney's relevant statutory law society before 31 December of the year following the year in which the first Attorneys Fidelity Fund certificate was issued. This deadline is the latest by when the training must be done and can be done earlier should the attorney prefer.

In certain circumstances, an attorney can apply to his/her provincial statutory law society for an extension or exemption, on the basis of prior experience and/or qualifications. Please refer overleaf for more information on applying for an extension or exemption.

What does the LEAD Practice Management Training offer?

This practice management training was developed to assist attorneys manage their practices effectively by combining legal expertise with strategic business management.

The course focuses on the fundamentals of practice management relating to management, marketing, technology and finance. Its ultimate aim is to provide attorneys with the tools to manage their law firms more efficiently on a sustained basis in order to improve standards of practice of the legal profession and service delivery to clients.

The course, which is subsidised by the Attorneys Fidelity Fund, is designed to provide training and guidance to attorneys on inter alia

- effectively starting a practice;
- combining legal expertise with strategic business management;
- applying resources productively;
- practising in a financially sound manner;
- marketing for profitability;
- ensuring risk management and control; and
- administering the affairs of clients and the business prudently.

Legal Practice Bill

Transitional provisions relating to qualifications in the Legal Practice Bill, 2012, state that the training course presented at a Practical Legal Training School of the Law Society of South Africa; or any other training course approved by any existing society before the date referred to in s 119(4) for the purpose of training persons to qualify as legal practitioners, must be regarded as having been presented or approved pursuant to the regulations pertaining to practical vocational training.

Requirements when registering for PMT

Upon registration, students are to ensure they have an active individual email address as well as internet access. They will need to access e-LEADer (LEAD's e-learning platform) where important notices, submission and marking of assignments and relevant information about the training will be posted. No sharing of email addresses is allowed, students must have individual email accounts.

Exemption and extension process

Students can apply to be exempted from the full training or certain modules. The exemption and extension process is dealt with by a formal application to the Records Division of the student's statutory law society. The contact details are found below.

Cape Law Society – Tel: (021) 443 6700
Law Society of the Northern Provinces – Tel: (012) 338 5800
Law Society of the Free State – Tel: (051) 447 3237
Law Society of KwaZulu-Natal – Tel: (033) 345 1304

Cancellation of registration

Cancellation is to be made in writing and submitted to the LEAD Practice Management Training department at least 30 days prior to the commencement of the course (Please note that there will be a 10% admin fee charged). Failure to notify the department timeously will result in the student forfeiting all the fees paid. This provision, however, does not apply if formal exemption has been granted by the student's statutory law society. In such a case, a refund will be paid upon receipt of written confirmation of the exemption from the law society. The refund will be calculated as follows:

- If full exemption has been granted prior to issuing of material and commencing of classes – a full refund will be processed.
- If partial or full exemption is granted after material is issued to the student and classes have commenced, the material not required should be returned to LEAD within 2 weeks. If the material has been damaged or needs to be repackaged, LEAD will charge the student a "reasonable amount" to cover the cost of restoring the material to its original condition.

Assignment deadlines & requirements

1. Students must submit assignments to the LEAD Practice Management Training department on or before the set closing date, via the e-LEADer platform. No e-mailed/faxed assignments will be accepted.
2. A student who fails to submit an assignment by the set date, can only submit his/her assignment the following intake's set assignment submission date.
3. Assignments submitted without the signed declaration forms will not be accepted.

Successful completion of the PMT Course

To complete the course, students are required to have a satisfactory attendance record of the training (8 modules) as well as having passed the three assignments and tests and quizzes. Ideally, the student should complete the training at the end of the first six months after registering. Students are, however, required to complete the Practice Management Training in full within 18 months from the date of registering.

If the training has not been completed within 18 months from the date of first registration, the student will have to re-register and repeat the entire training (8 modules and 3 assignments). The full cost of the training will have to be paid again.

Code of conduct

Students should note that any misconduct will be reported to the student's statutory law society which will in turn proceed with an investigation into the misconduct and disciplinary action will be taken where appropriate. An instructor has the authority to cancel a student's attendance in his/her class.

Examples of misconduct are:

- Fraudulent completion of the attendance register;
- Plagiarism of any assignment;
- Acts of dishonesty and unprofessional conduct.
