CIVIL MEDIATION TRAINING | 2018

Intensive 5-Day Course for the Legal Profession | 40-hours
Prepare attorneys to be effective mediators

About the course

As you are no doubt aware, the rules regulating the mediation process in the Magistrates' Courts were published on 18 March 2014 and came into operation on 1 December 2014. The new rules facilitate settlement of cases through mediation. Past experience has shown that mediation is a growing area of legal specialisation and, when used appropriately, can offer a valuable approach to reduce the time and costs of litigation. This course is primarily designed to prepare attorneys to be mediators. Attorneys will also be equipped to advise clients on the mediation process. When designing the course content, the Standards for Civil Mediation were taken into account.

- The mediation process principles, stages and methodology of mediation
- Role and function of the mediator

- Conflict management
- Essential skills in negotiation
- Adversarial processes
- Social-context and diversity awareness
- Taking control of the mediation process
- Dealing with people and building rapport
- Communication and diplomacy
- Gaining an understanding of the problems
- Confidentiality, privacy and reporting obligations
- Neutrality and impartiality
- Drafting agreements at the end of the process
- Skills required in moving towards a solution that satisfies the needs of the parties, and
- Practical skills to conduct a mediation process.

Accreditation

The LSSA has provisionally been accredited by the Dispute Settlement Accreditation Council (DiSAC) for general commercial mediation standard training. NOTE: DiSAC is only extending provisional accreditation for this training course as it is in the process of finalising a more detailed assessment process.

Certificate of successful completion

IMPORTANT:

Delegates are required to attend the full 5-day (40-hour) course and comply with all assessment requirements in order to receive a Certificate of Successful Completion.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CANDIDATE ATTORNEYS AND NON-ATTORNEYS:

To receive the Certificate of Successful Completion, these students must pass a separate online multiple choice test on Civil Procedure. Knowledge of Civil Procedure is a requirement in terms of the standards for Court-Annexed Mediation set by the Department of Justice.

Candidate attorneys registered at LEAD should use the High Court Practice and Magistrate's Court Practice manuals to study for the test. Other participants will be expected to purchase the LEAD manuals (Click here for the order form). The online test date will be advised after the delegate has registered.
