TRUSTS AND DIVORCES | 2018

A one-day seminar focusing on trusts and the abuse of trusts, particularly in divorce matters

About this seminar

This is an important update for all attorneys advising clients on the use and benefits of trusts and how the consequences of misuse, mismanagement and abuse of trusts will 'come home to roost'.

The seminar content covers requirements for the establishment of a valid trust; continued administration of a trust and trustees duties; the abuse of trusts and hiding of assets in divorce matters; and case law – trusts in divorce matters.

Venues and dates

Bloemfontein: 02 November 2018 | Duration: 09:00 - 16:00

East London: 16 November 2018 | Duration: 09:00 - 16:00

Who should register?

Practising attorneys and candidate attorneys with an interest in trust and/or divorce law, divorce practitioners and trust practitioners. Attendees should have a basic knowledge of the Trust Property Control Act, the Matrimonial Property Act and the Divorce Act.

Presenter

Ceris Field holds the BA LLB degrees from the University of Cape Town. She is an admitted attorney, notary and conveyancer specialising in wills, trusts and the administration of deceased estates. She lectures throughout South Africa on the drafting of wills, testamentary trusts and the administration process involved in deceased estates. Ceris has been a presenter with LEAD for 20 years and consistently receives excellent feedback from the attendees. This year's one-day seminar introduces something different to previous years that you may have attended.
