Principles of Personal Injury Law Seminar | 2019

Sharpen your skills in the approach to litigating personal injury claims

About this seminar

This seminar offers legal practitioners the scope to improve their expertise in various aspects of personal injury litigation. Those who attend will gain a workable knowledge, alternatively, sharpen their skills in their approach to litigating the different categories of personal injury claims, including:

- general assault;
- wrongful arrests and detention;
- malicious prosecution;
- slip and fall;
- rail accident; and
- delictual claims arising from the conduct of domesticated animals and wild animals.
