NATIONAL CREDIT ACT | One-day seminar

Be prepared when the far reaching amendments to the National Credit Act as approved by the National Assembly and the Council of Provinces in March 2019 is signed into law by President Ramaphosa.

About this seminar

This full day seminar will focus on the amendments to the National Credit Act to be introduced via the approved National Credit Act Amendment Bill as well as on a number of important recent court and tribunal decisions. Topics to be covered will include:

- the requirements for and consequences of statutory debt intervention;
- the granting of and investigation into reckless credit;
- mandatory credit insurance;
- fees, charges and legal costs;
- the re-instatement of credit agreements by consumers;
- compulsory registration of all providers of credit; and
- new offences introduced under the act.
