Lifelong learning towards a just society

Introduction

The LSSA joined forces with the Unisa Centre for Lifelong Learning (UCL) to offer two accredited postgraduate, distance-education 'Short Learning Programmes' to law practitioners.

These 'Short Learning Programmes' are in the form of certificate courses and have been developed by the UCL to update or broaden a law practitioner's skills and knowledge in specific fields where having up-to-date knowledge is essential to practice. This underscores the LSSA's commitment to provide life-long learning and assist the legal practitioner with their Post Professional Development (PPD).

It is important to note that 'Short Learning Programmes' are, by nature, short and are not formal qualifications.

Postgraduate courses

The two courses are:

- Corporate Law (NQF level: 7; Credits: 24); and
- Deceased Estates Practice (NQF level: 7; Credits: 24).

Closing date for registration is 29 January 2022.

General details for both courses

Individual course details and the registration forms are found on the accompanying pages.

Tuition material

Tuition material has been compiled by the UCL in consultation with the LSSA.

Registration and administration

Student registration is done by LEAD, the educational division of the LSSA. Course administration is done by the UCL of Unisa.

Determination of learning outcomes

A consultative process between the LSSA and UCL is undertaken to determine the needs and priorities of each course.

Assessments

The formative assessment and examination admission comply with Unisa's formative assessment rules and policies.

Method of tuition

- Tutorial letters and assignments will be available online via the Unisa Online Platform (myUnisa).
- This will enable students to access the electronic distance education facilities in order to download study material and submit assignments. Please note that the material will not be available in hard copy format.
- At least one workshop is arranged for students, provided there is enough interest in an area for financial feasibility. The workshops are facilitated by the programme presenters.

COURSE IN CORPORATE LAW

Accreditation

NQF level of module: 7 Credits: 24 (Qualification Code 76252. Module code CCPL01D)

Purpose of the certificate course

To equip students with an advanced knowledge of the provisions of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 with respect to various issues. These include the incorporation and registration of companies, company shares, shareholders and company meetings, directors and board meetings, capacity and representation of a company, public offers of securities, take-overs and insider trading, remedies and enforcement, business rescue proceedings and compromises, as well as close corporations.

Revised regulations are included.

Duration

Two compulsory semesters.

Dates

February 2022 to December 2022

Closing date for registration: 29 January 2022.

Target group

Students must be in possession of an LLB, or a BProc degree.

Prospective students who have any other appropriate degree or who feel that they have the necessary knowledge and practical experience to register for the course may make written submissions with the necessary supporting documents to the LEAD course coordinators for submission to the university for consideration. The applicant will be informed of the outcome in writing.

Outline of course content

Semester 1

- Introduction to companies;
- Incorporation and registration of companies;
- Corporate finance: Shares, debentures and distributions;
